

6 PM—6:30 PM: Radio Free Theatre

Radio Free Theatre returns to KUCR's airwaves this season with some new productions, some original and some not, and some of their old favorites. RFT is a collective of UCR actors and actresses and radio producers and engineers who are interested in the grand tradition of radio theatre. Produced in KUCR's studios, this is a program of rare, exciting and creative radio drama.

February 15: Three Short Stories by Parker 1) "Arrangement in Black and White" 2) "The Waltz" 3) "Soldiers of the Republic" Read by Debra Rister and Art Holcomb.

February 22: "Obituaries" by Will Saroyan
Read by RFT cast

February 29: "The Choice" by Mark Mansell
Performed by the RFT cast.

March 7: "Soap Bubble To the Stars" by Mark Mansell
Performed by the RFT cast.

March 14: "What Did You Say 'What' For?"

March 21: "Common Clay Court"

March 28: "The Ten Worst Things About A Man"

Radio Free Theatre is produced and coordinated by KUCR Production Director Charles Grissom.